

5 June 2018

Guy Barnett, Minister for Energy

Basslink Return to Service

The Government welcomes the announcement of the return to service of Basslink.

The Government's ongoing priority is energy security for Tasmanians and at no time during Basslink's outage has the State's energy security been at risk.

Since Basslink came offline in March, Hydro Tasmania's storages have remained comfortably above the levels the Government established to ensure energy security in Tasmania.