BEACONSFIELD DISTRICT HEALTH SERVICE AND HOSPITAL WILL BE MAINTAINED SAY LIBERALS

Friday 28 February 2014

The Beaconsfield District Health Service and Hospital will be maintained by a Liberal government said Guy Barnett Liberal candidate for Lyons today.

"We have responded to the fears and concerns in the local community.

"Our rural health services are vital and in many cases the lifeblood of these communities.

"The Beaconsfield District Health Service performs at a high level delivering essential services on the West Tamar. We have no intention of down grading these services. What is more a Liberal government will work with the local community and the West Tamar Council to ensure both the facilities and health services continue to meet the needs of the area," concluded Mr Barnett.

The Hon Will Hodgman wrote to the West Tamar Council and community representatives today in response to the fears raised.

Mr Barnett delivered the good news in person to the council the health service and the local community.
