

TASMANIAN SCALLOP PIE FEATURED AT BAKERY 31, ROSS COMMUNITY DRINKS

Monday 10 February 2014

The Tasmanian scallop pie was featured at Ross Bakery 31 community drinks recently hosted by Liberal Candidate for Lyons and former senator Guy Barnett.

"The twenty or more guests discussed their desire to see further development in tourism and agriculture and job opportunities especially for young people.

"We have fantastic resources on our doorstep with small business the engine room of the state as is evidenced by Bakery 31's great success. We should celebrate all the good things about Tasmania. We should build on our strengths, Mr Barnett said.

"Being out in the community its reassuring to see so many people willing to engage. The uncertain economic and political climate is concerning to a lot of people. But I believe we have a fantastic future in Tasmania," Mr Barnett concluded.
